The fine single owner lifetime collection of antique letter openers, page turners and small carved wooden items assembled by Eugene Collind to the early 1970's. All will be sold without reserve. Ivory items cannot be shipped.

500 OPENER. An exceptional large letter opener made of brass with mosaic art work, including floral designs. The brass handle has numerous designs such as a stylized dolphin with trident, etc. Some damage to mosaic. 15" in length. Excellent example of a very unusual form. $300-$400

501 IVORY PAGE TURNER. Very large paper knife, 17 ½" in length. The blade itself measures 10" long and 1 ¾" at its widest. The area between blade and handle is carved with 3 rows of leaf designs and below a series of small round balls. There is a Gothic letter "K". $350-$500

502 IVORY PAGE TURNER. Paper knife with a silver handle. Overall meticulously engraved handle with floral type designs, etc. There is a gold tone circular plaque inlaid in the handle, probably for the owner's crest. The blade is thin so probably used for turning pages or sheets of paper. 11 ¾" long. $300-$350

503 PAGE TURNER. Handle is made of silver with a flat silver collar with hallmarks. Ivory blade. 13 ¾" long. $200-$250
